“Lawyers are not going to become extinct any time soon.”

- Mark Cohen (legalmosaic.com)

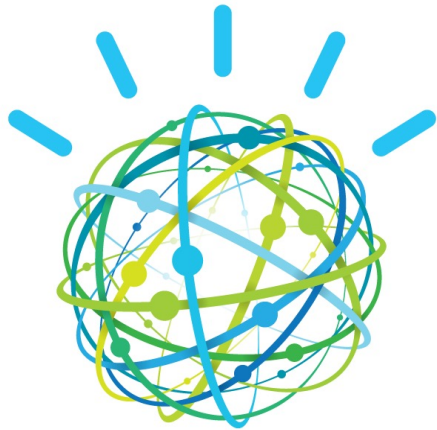

“Lawyers are not going to become extinct any time soon. But just as doctors’ tasks, delivery structures, and employers have changed in recent years, so too will it be for lawyers. Technology is already reconfiguring legal delivery. But this is hardly a surprise given its impact hospitality, car hire, retail, communications, and a slew of other industries.”

- Mark Cohen (legalmosaic.com)
